COLUMBIA

DEMOCRAT.

AND BLOOMSBURG

LEVI L. TATE, Editor.

$2 00 PER ANNUM.

VOL. 14 .-- NO. 42.

BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1860.

VOL. 24.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY, BY LEVI L. TATE. IN BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, FA.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

ary Asymptonius velocited, and Jon Work

THE PLAG OF OUR UNION.

"Agosu for our honour?" - The watchword recall Which gave the Republic her station:
"United we stand - divided we ra?!" —
It made and preserved us a nation?
The union of lakes—the union of language.

The union of States none conserver—
The union of Brants—the union of hands—
Aut the Play of the Union Braver

And ever! The Flag of our Union forever! What God in his parey and wisdom designed.

The many of States none can sever -The main of hearts—the main of hands -And the Fing of the Coron Torover And ever? The Fing of our Union topover!

On keep that the thing! - The pride of the was t To strather nations display it?
The haloss for notice are not to noness? The fillers for influence of constant for the filler for the amount of lands—
Then the amount of lands—and constitute—
The amount of outer more can between The amount of outer for the filler of lands—
And she Play I for the outer for the filler outer for the fi

REV. JOHN CHAMBERS' SERMON

HOW TO SAVE THE UNION.

Chambers would delivered a sermon on no less. Let them be assured on manly of America, whether North, South, East, "How to Save the Union," and his church honor, that they have rights—rights of or West, whether in States or Territories, on Broad street, Philadelphia, was necessary opinions and rights of property—and let the infinite mercy and loving kindness of diagly growded on Thanksgiving morning, as give them this assurance without our Heavenly Father. The revenued gentleman announced the tailment, preverieation, or mental reservatext for the discourse to be from Isaiah tion. We of Pennsylvania expect our axi: 11, 12, as follows: "He calleth to constitutional rights to be recognized and me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the respected by South Carolina, Florida, night ! Watehman, what of the night !- Georgia, and Maryland; and have not the The Watchman said, The morning cometh, citizens of these Commonwealths the same and also the night r if ye will inquire, right to insist upon our giving them the inquire ve : return, come."

his position more than did the speaker.— also. What we expect of others we should the northern and southern boundaries of the stood before a large audience as a render in return. There should be a the State. Her people are awake to every minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, devoted beautiful system of reciprocity running thing that is going on, and especially who to the interests of the Master and his through every State, and we of the North the period for electing a President comes kingdom. As a Christian he was bound should sustain our part in it. If the right round, In deciding upon this latter quesby the Bible and the teachings of the Bi- of rendering property was constitutional tion, they evince a spirit of consistency ble; as a citizen he was firmly inentified then all States should enjoy is. No mat-with the Constitution and the Union. He ter what that property is, it should be profalt that we were in the midst of fearful teeted in possession and returned to the trials, and consequently he could not be owner without let or hindrance. If the indifferent to the interests and perils of the authorities of Virginia attempted to seize votes polled was 4,340, of which John C. and that many would say there was no justly resent it, as a wrong. Then, why cause for alarm. The speaker believed should not the chizon of Virginia, Carothere was danger. No same man could lina, or Georgia, have the same protection has a parallel in the entire South, inclushuthis exaste that fact and we may as well know it now. He did not speak as an Pennsylvania and the Northern States?

ding a territory giving an equal number of votes against Lincoln and Bell. It is alarmist, for the facts were palpable to Whatever the Constitution recognizes as unquestionably the Banner county of the all. Where was the impossibility of dis-union? It was just as positively asserted State could rightcously pass a law to null. The Democrats of this section are in no years since that there was no danger of ify its possession or existence. If this of the Church of God being divided. Yet was granted, there would be no disunion, what do we see now? The Methodist and in the breast of the speaker there was Church-that vast empire of intellect, be no sympathy for disunion so long as Union fully sanctioned and amply provided for in novolence, and religious enterprise, whose was maintained on principle. influence extended from shore to shore- IV. As Christians we should recognize solution of the Union? The cry comes the laws of the United States. As for the up from all parts of the land: "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?"-and the mawer rolling up from the North, the South, the East, and the West, throbs through the great national heart, "The morning cometh, and also been framed by as gifted minds, as pure the night: if ye will inquire, inquire yo: hearts, and as noble spirits, as ever were

After visidly depicting the evils that must necessarily follow a dissolution of Each State should carefully, scrapulously the Union, the speaker proposed to show low the Republic might be saved from

I. By a rigid and universal adherance should stand by the fourth article and ev-statue books directly in opposition to the brave." letter and spirit of our general Constitu- God Almighty fordid such a catastrophe! tion. If the repeal of those laws would Let the sons of the Pinckneys, the Adamstend to claim the political mind, and re- es, the Clays, the Patrick Henrys, the move the intense political excitement now descendants of Northern patriots and prevailing, and threatening disaster to the Southern patriots, once more unite under nation, what State would not be magnan- the Constitution and its laws, and within imous to do so? They should come up to the bounds of a holy Union. Let every the work like men. If a brother is inju- man speak kindly and lovingly. Let us red, who will refuse brotherly reparation ? do it in the spirit of patriotism and love-Let us hasten to do this thing, and, having obeying the communits of our Constitutio removed the cause of slienation, once more and the laws-and then we can meet let us shake hands in conciliation, harmo- should we live another year, in the spirit

No one could feel the responsibility of it under the Constitution, they demand it derey border, and about midway between and now completely divided and sectional- the precept of Jesus, "Render unto Clesar perils which surround it. Let inpulsive ized. The Baptist church and the New the things which are Casar's." As Chris-School Pre-byterian church presented the tians and as citizens we should obey the same painful spectacle. They were so powers ordained by God. If we had only completely divided that the sacret elements | done our duty in this respect as Christians, of Christian communion were refused there would be no dissension to-day. He among brothren. The cause that led to believed as devoutly as he behaved in the rupture was the question now before eternity that if the American pulpit had While the States remain a Union, they tion for all outlays of strength bring about their children have been so signally bless- our view, and then taken from as, leaving the country, and producing the present done its duty the American nation would will never fail to su t in the South in her agitation. If it proved sufficient to see- be at peace. When we see the ministers present demands, and should the time ever leet, which in their reaction upon the body ish it must, life itself, my friend, will loss if ow back in Alpine terrents upon our tionalize the Church of God, what can of God substituting rifles for Bibles, and come when John Brown raids become the hinder it from dividing the civil ties which disseminating discord among men, it was bind the States in a political union?

Admitting this, the question again reHe desired to urge upon his hearers the time for the Christian community to arise, curred, what can be done to avert the dis- duty of sustaining the Constitution and sceaker, he had planted his feet upon that rock, and nothing but an electric bolt dashing from a thunder cloud could remove

> Our Constitution the American Bible, had created-by men who loved law, order, pence and liberty. We should all obey it conscientiously mind its own business. It to people do not like the laws let them be repealed-but until legally repealed they

COLUMBIA DEMOCRATI, tution and the laws of the United States. Once more, we should remember that Universal obedience to the laws was not we are a nation of brothers. When the Once more, we should remember that only a duty on the part of the civil au- revolutionary struggle took place, noblood thority of each State, but on every citizen flowed more freely, more patriotically than of that State. However binding the laws the blood of our Southern fathers. The on our statute books might be regarded by chivalrous sons of the South had shed the new Brick Building reposite the Exchange by side jurists, unless sustained by the hearts of their blood in every portion of the colonial the people they were futile. The people battle-grounds. Between the North and of this Commonwealth would not permit South there still exists a brotherhood of of this Commonwealth would not permit could blood. We are all proud of the glory of general which we do not deny. A fine, they should practice the telerance they the American name. Shall this fraternal expect to recieve. The Constitution was blood now run together in deadly conflict the foundation of the compact between into one great river of terribee death !people and people, and we should sustain Shall there be civil war, anarchy, and ts provisions as religiously as we defend desolation? Shall brother fight against like Christians the doctrines of the Bible, brother, and kinsman against kinsman? River steamer under full headway, with 11. Let those States which have enact- Shall a single star be torn from the gloried laws nullifying the Constitution and the ous galaxy, or a single stripe be blotted er stirring and inspiring—and we pull up laws of the land, at once repeal them .- from the consecrated fold? Shall the They owe it to the nation—to the commu- American eagle, the proud bird which has swell she cuts. Comparatively, however nity of national interests—to patriotism, sourced aloft in majesty and glory for three the steamer sinks into insignificance, or and to God. If one State can legislate score years and ten, be compelled to pour some other deep water, by the side of a and to God. If one State can registate out one wild shrick as it rises from its well-kept, well-dressed woman. There is can do it. In the Northern States, or at morning liar: "Farewell, farewell, the no rubbing it out; women are the ornament least in may of them, laws are on the land of the free and the home of the ny, and peace.

All. Let all the States units in the happy and prosperous, and with the stars spirit of fraternal love, securing to the and stripes chining unsulfied. In the silizons of each State a full enjoyment of name of the fathers, he begged for union. It was announced that the Rev. John their constitutional rights—no more and and in conclusion, invoked upon the people

Hail Columbia!

One of the best places this side of Jordan is Columbia county, in Pennsylvania, along one of whose bright, sparkling streams we remember our "good oh Home." Columbia is situated in the in all the Free States; and we doubt if it respect identified with the much abused institution of the South. They support it simply because they recognize it as being the original compact, and believe it entitled to protection commensurate with the men of the South beware how they speak of their friends in the free States; let them remember that there is a gallant band north of Mason and Dixon's line as true to the Constitution and their interest as can be found anywhere in the Ropublic .-order of the day they will have in these men an active and powerful ally.

Unionville (Mo.) Argus.

last hour of his existence, as he lay in bed, power and charm that she possesses. sang the hymns taught him in the infant There you have the receipe. Some of it Father in the Promised Land."

eyes to see what they are doing.

How to Preserve Women.

A CHAPTER OF EXCELLENT ADVICE.

There is nothing in the world that we think so much of as women. Our mother is a women-wife, sister and pretty cousus are women, and the daughters will be, (Heaven spare them!) if they live long and health, a ripe red cheek, and flashing eye is something that does one good to look at as she illuminates the humdrum side walks and every-day streets. A North our nag to see her pass, and admire the charm, blessing, beauty and bliss of life-(man's life we mean, of course.) Any means, therefore, that can be devised for preserving them should be publicly up in sugar and set them in a room, with a paper soaked in brandy over their mouths You can not put them up in caus, scaled air tight, without injuring their form and Savor. Now, as mon are so dependent roper mode for preserving them becomes of great moment, and we are sure the pubic will thank us for an infallible receipt

Have the feet well protected, then pay he next attention to the chest. The chest s the repository of the vital organs .-There abide the heart and lungs. It is from the impression made upon these organs, through the skin, that the shiver comes; it is nature's quake-the alarm bell at the enset of danger. A woman may never shiver from the effect of cold upon her limbs, or bands or head; but let the cold strike through her clothing on her chest, and off go her teeth into a chatter. and the whole organization is in commothousands. Therefore, while the feet are well looked after, never forget the chest. These points attended to, the natural consections of the dress will supply the rest, ping, call upon the poor, and walk for the Air that is dry or burnt, more or less of distru-charged with gasses evolved by the fuel, is moved. put something more about the breast.

mal or vegetable can enjoy health in dark- of our independent national existence?

produce an effect that is nothing less than its value for you and me. preservation. Then there is a higher It is apparent that much will depend tiny than that of earth; there is a realm his wounds were dressed, and during the to preserve and heighten every personal which framed the Constitution.

hool-the last being the beautiful one is in sportive form , but it is not the less ommencing with the words, "I have a sober truth. It has within a cure for ma-

We have been shown a private letter 1795, that as a boy I was among the some idea of the greatness of the popula-

LOWELL, Mass., Nov. 26, 1860. out lot so much, at least, be said.

can, under existing circumstances, dream whiteness, a dress sword by his side, and of coercion. The first blow struck in that his hat held in his hand. Thus he stood riously commercial confidence, and conse-stillness reigned. Not a word was heard. a cold upon the cheat has slain its tens of quently the price of stocks, &c., have al- It was a feeling beyond that which vents ready been shaken at the North, and yet itself in shouts. Every heart was full. there is in the public mind a very imper- In vain would any tongue have spoken. feet apprehension of the real danger. Still All were gazing in mute admiration -be ground of hope that these just causes | sceretary, then I believe Mr. Dandridge of distrust and dissatisfaction may be re- or Colonel Lear, who got out of the other fass shall be kicked out of the establish-indifferent to the interests and perils of the authorities of Virginia attempted to seize votes polled was 4,340, of which John C. with mittens on. Fly around the house draft on their devotion to the Union, and handed him a paper—probably a copy of hour. The question he designed consider the horse and carriage of a citizen of Breckinralge received 2,367, and Stephen like mad and ventilate the rooms. Don't be guided by the wise moderation which the speech to be delivered—when both ing was "How is the Republic to per- Pennsylvania, travelling to one of her A. Dooglas, etghey-siz; the balance being sit pent up in a single room with double the exigency so argently calls for. Can it entered the building. Then it was, and number of buffalces to the ring, intending petuated?" He was aware that on this springs, under the pretext of a municipal cast for Lincoln and Bell. This is, per- windows. Fruit will not retain its form be that this flag, with all the stars in their not till then, that the crowd sat up huzzas, point there was much diversity of opinion, law, Pennsylvania would resent it, and hops, one of the most withering rebakes to or flavor in air tight caus, neither will we places, is no longer to float at home long, loud, and enthusiastic. Squatter Sovereignty given by any county men. They need air. If the shiver comes abroad and always as an emblem of our on during these operations, go directly and united power, common freedom and unchallenged security? Can it be that it is eloquently says:—

'I cannot believe that the earth is man's Again, do not live in dark rooms.— to go down in darkness, if not in blood, abiding place. It can't be that our life is ness. Light is as necessary as air, and a I agree with you that madness has rulbrown tan is preferable, even as a matter of the hour in pushing forward a line of of beauty, to a sickly paleness of com- aggressions upon the South, but I will not glorious aspirations, which leap like andespair of returning reason, and of a rea. gels from the temple of our hearts, are This much in regard to the physical wakened sense of constitutional right and means of preservation. There are moral duty. I will still look with curnest hope means important. Every woman should for the full and speedy vindication of the come over us with a beauty that is not of of his supplications. Turning to her mothbe married to an excellent man. Mar- coequal rights and coequal obligations of carth, and then pass off and leave us to er and beckening the maternal car down be married to an excellent man. Marcoequal rights and coequal obligations of riage, it is true brings care and wear; but these States, and for restored fraternity is it that the stars who hold their festival

"Mother, don't you think that if he lived it is the ring that is worn that keeps bright, and the watch that lies still secured by following the example of the unwound, that gets out of order. The fathers of the Republic-fraternity based the grasp of our limited faculties, forever loud?" sweet sympathics involved in the family upon admission and cheerful maintenance mocking us with their unapproachable relation, the new energies developed by of all provisions and requirements of the glery? And finally, why is it that bright "elecution in prayer." new respondibilities. The new compensa- sacred justrument under which they and forms of human beauty are presented to a delightful play upon the heart and intel- ed. When that hope shall perish, if per- the thousand sireaus of our affections to moral power than this-one which we upon the views expressed and the tone and where the rainbow never fades, where the speak of soberly and reverently. No one temper manifested during the early days stars will spread before us like islands A CHILD'S DEATHERD.-Marion Bitner, is completely armed against the encroach- of the session of Congress now near at hand that slumber on the ceean, and where the a little boy four years old, was so badly ing ills of life who has in the heart, no May the God of our fathers guide the beings that pass before us like shadows calded in Philadelphia on Saturday last, place for religion. The calmness, the pa- counsels of those who in the different de_ will stay in our presence forever. or falling head first into a large kettle of tience, and the joy and hope that are in partments of government are invested in A little boy of a certain village, not far y falling head first into a large kettle of the women whose heart is this critical epoch with responsibilities unfrom Germantown, being asked in Sauday ter shance of getting it then, should I can hours. He was comparatively easy after right in its highest relation, can never full known since the sitting of the Convention

Your triend, FRANKLIN PIERCE.

A wroow lady sitting by a cheerful who send a few lines of advertisement, asby a disease—the preventative for more, fire in a meditative mood, shortly after companied by a column of editorial which It might be made longer; when we see her husband's decease, sighed; "Poor they mildly request to be inserted gratis,

Letter from Ex-Fresident Fierce | Washington Opening Congress. It was, I think, in the year 1794 or A writer thus undertakes to convey from Ex-President Pierce to a friend in spectators congregated at that corner and tion of China : this city, written, it is true, in the course parts close by, to witness a great public "The mind cannot grasp the real import of friendly correspondence, and not with a spectacle-Washington was to open the of so vast a number. Four hundred mulview to publication. But as we think the session of Congress by going in person, as lions! What does it mean! Count it. people are entitled to the views of well- was his custom, to deliver a speech to both Night and day, without rest, or food, or known and tried public servants, who have Houses assembled in the chamber of the sleep, you continue the weary work; yet enjoyed a large share of the public confi- House of Representatives. The crowd cleven days has passed before you have lence, we have requested a copy of this was immense, considering the size of our counted the first million, and more than magnificent specimen of the sex, full of life letter for this issue. We recognize in every; for, although then the largest in the as many years before the end of the tediery line of it a spirit of patriotism and, de- country, its population was hardly more ous task can be reached." He also supvotion to the whole country, which will than forty-five thousand. It filled the poses this mighty multitude to take up its insure the attentive perusal of every rea- whole area in Chestnut street, before the line of march in a grand precession, placed State House extended along the line of in single file at six feet apart, and march-Chestnut street, and spread north and ing at the rate of thirty miles a day, ex-My Dear Sir: Your letter was received south some distance along Sixth street .- cept on the Sabbath, which is given to at Concord, on Saturday, and I should A way kept open for carriages in the mid- rest. "Day after day the moving column have answered it while there, if I could die of the street, was the only place not advances, the head pushing on far toward have found a little interval of leisure. I packed with people. I had a stand on the the rising sun, now bridge the Pacific, now am here to day on business, and can there steps of one of the houses in Chestnut bridge the Atlantic. And now the Pacific fore do scarcely more than to thank you; street, which, raising me above the mass is crossed, but still the long procession of human heads, enabled me to see to an marches on stretching across high mount-The appreheusions which you so forci- advantage. After waiting long hours, as sins, and sunny plains, and broad rivers, ly express did not increase mine. You it seemed to a boy's impatience, the car. through China and India, and the Eurolow how sincerely and carnestly I have riage of the President at length slowly pean kingdoms, and on again over the for years deprecated the causes which, if drove up, drawn by four beautiful bay stormy bosom of the Atlantic. But the not removed, I foresaw must produce the horses. It was white, with medallion or circuit of the world itself affords not standmade known. They are different from any fearful crisis which is now upon us; and I naments on the panels, and the livery of ing room. The endless column will double know how ineffectual, in this section, have the servants, as well as I remember, was upon itself, and double again and again, becau all warnings of patriotism, and ordi-white turned up with red; at any rate a and shall girdle the earth eighteen times nary for cast. Now, for the first time, glowing livery; the entire display in before the great reservoir which furnishes men are compelled to open their eyes, as equipages at that era, in our country gon-if aroused from some strange delusion, up-erally, and in Philadelphia in particular, Weeks, and months, and years roll away, on a full view of the nearness and magni- while the seat of government. being more and still they come, men, women and chiltude of the impending calamities. It is rich and varied than now, though fewer dren. Since the march began the little worse than idle, -it is fooll-hardy, -to in number. Washington get out of his child has become a man, and yet on they discuss the question of probable relative carriage and slowly crossing the pavement, come, in unfailing numbers. Not till the suffering and less in different sections of ascended the steps of the edifice, upon the end of forty-one years will the last of the the Union. In case of disruption, we shall upper end of which he paused and turning long procession have passed. all be involved in common financial eme half round, looked in the direction of a Such is China in its population; and if barrassments and ruin, and, I fear, in carriage which had followed the lead of his Homer could preach elequently on the ommon destruction-so much more appal own. Thus he stood for a minute, dis- vaulty of man as mortal, with equal eleing than any attendant upon mere sacri- linetly seen by everybody. He stood in quence, had he seen or contemplated the fice of property, that one involuntarily all his civic dignity. His costume was a millions of China, could be have preached turns even from its contemplation. To full suit of black velvet; his heir, in itself on the vanity of man as an individual? my mind, one thing is clear, -no wise men blanched by time, powdered to snow > directionwill be a blow fatal even to hope. in silence; and what moments these were! You have observed, of course, how se- Throughout the dense crowd profound carriage-a chariot-decorated like his ment."

moment upon its waves and sink into curiesity. nothingness! Else why is it that the forever wandering about unsatisfied !- of a certain denomination praying most Why is it that the rainbow and clouds lustily, till the roof rang with the strength hearts? We are born for a higher des-school "what is the chief and of man?" ammered, "The end what's got the head

Tun ecolest people in the world-these king him to throw in a barrel of flour ! brains.

Wonderful Calculation.

A WORTHY gentleman, Major was once placed in charge of the penitenaccordingly had the inmates paraded in the yard, and, with a graceful gesture, commenced a speech to them, as follows: "Gentlemen-hem! no, you are not gentlemen. Fellow-citizens-hem! no, I'll answer you are not fellow-citizens. Conthere are indications of a disposition to re- Every eye was rivited on his majestic form. President of the United States, warden of peal laws directed against the constitution- It might have seemed as if he stood in that this penitontiary. Now, I wish to say to al rights of the Southern States—such as position to gratify the assembled thousupersonal liberty bills," &c.,—and if we position to gratify the assembled thousupersonal liberty bills," &c.,—and if we position to gratify the assembled thousupersonal liberty bills," &c.,—and if we position to gratify the assembled thousupersonal liberty bills," &c.,—and if we position to gratify the assembled thousupersonal liberty bills, and the second sec ould gain a little time, there would seem country. Not so. He had paused for his ner, and I would like it to be understood

A WELL KNOWN equestrian is now on a farm in Kansas engaged in training a to ride an act of horsemanship (!) upon one of them. He has ton of them in hand, which he intends driving tandem before a music wagon in procession. It is probable that he will so far accomplish his purpose as to join some company next spring. A Again, do not live in dark rooms.— before we have completed a single century Light feeds the flowers. No living ani- before we have completed a single century cast upon the ocean of eternity to float a driven by one person, will indeed be a

LIVING NEAR TO GOD .- One day a girl about five years old heard a prencher

Such a question is worth a volume on

Tire hest blander we have heard of for a long time was committed recoully, by a negro servant, who had been sent by his mistress to borrow Blackwood's Magazine from a neighbor. He delivered his message as follows : "Missis compliments, and snys will you please send her the July

'HENRY, you ought to be ashamed, to throw away bread like that. You may want it, some day."

it up now !"

Sam a woman to an old maid, "My husband is not so good a husband as he should be, but he is a powerful sight better than none."

NEVER spank your children with a Wiry should potatoes grow better than the prescriptions universally adopted, it fellow—how he did like a good fire? I This is precisely the same as paying a handsaw, or box their cars with the sharp. any other vegetable ! Because they have will be time to bring forward the remain. hope he has gone where they keep good storekeeper for a pound of sugar and as edge of a hatchet. It is appear affect their